Jesus Appears to His Disciples

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the disciples were together, with the doors locked for fear of the Jewish leaders, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!" After he said this, he showed them his hands and side. The disciples were overjoyed when they saw the Lord.

Again Jesus said, "Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I am sending you." And with that he breathed on them and said, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive anyone's sins, their sins are forgiven; if you do not forgive them, they are not forgiven."

LIVING THE LITURGY: Sunday Mass

Please consider the teaching about Sunday Mass contained in one of the documents from the Second Vatican Council, The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, Sacrosanctum Concilium:

"Christ indeed always associates the Church with Himself in the truly great work of giving perfect praise to God and making men holy. The Church is His dearly beloved Bride who calls to her Lord, and through Him offers worship to the Eternal Father. Rightly, then, the liturgy is considered as an exercise of the priestly office of Jesus Christ.

"By an apostolic tradition which took its origin from the very day of Christ's resurrection, the Church celebrates the paschal mystery every eighth day; with good reason this, then, bears the name of the Lord's day or the day of the Lord. For on this day Christ's faithful should come together into one place so that, by hearing the word of God and taking part in the Eucharist, they may call to mind the passion, the resurrection, and the glorification of the Lord Jesus, and may thank God who "has begotten us again, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, unto a living hope" (1 Pet. 1:3). Hence the Lord's day is the original feast day, and it should be proposed to the piety of the faithful and taught to them in such a way that it may become in fact a day of joy and of freedom from work. Other celebrations, unless they be truly of overriding importance, must not have precedence over this day, which is the foundation and nucleus of the whole liturgical year." (SC 8, 106)

Mowing Volunteers

As Sam recuperates, we will need helpers to mow the grass as needed. Please call the office if you're able to pitch in. 845-733-1477

A Solemn Procession

Next weekend on Sunday, June 2nd, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body & Blood of Jesus Christ – also known as Corpus Christi. To honor this event, our Church is hosting a Solemn Procession following the 9:30 Mass. At the beginning of The procession will leave the church, go to Altar 1 in the Meditation Garden, then to Altar 2 in the Pavilion, and will conclude the procession at Altar 3 at the Marian Shrine. For your safety there will be people directing you to where you can park and also directing traffic as the procession crosses the road. For anyone who is not comfortable walking, there will be seating available at Altar 3 – the Marian Shrine – where there will be good visibility of the procession as it takes place.

As you enter Church next Sunday, you will receive a booklet that will guide you through the Procession activities – songs, litanies and prayers. We look forward to seeing you next Sunday!
