Weekly Snapshot - 6/17/24

Each week we will now be showing both income and what we paid out in expenses for the week. We are running close most weeks, but will occasionally show a surplus.

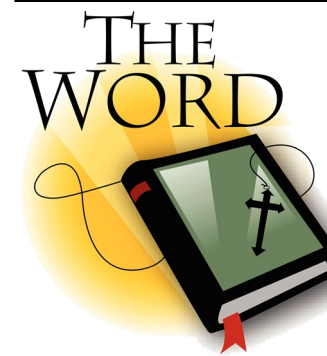

Attending Mass on June 15 or 16: 000

Weekend Collection: $2,237.00

Weekly Expenses: $5,745.63

Deficit this week: -$3,508.63*****

***There are occasional weeks that will stand out as exceptional with regard to contributions. This is not typical, and we are most grateful when they occur!

LIVING THE LITURGY:

In the Midst of the Storm

In the First Reading from the Book of Job, God reminds Job that God alone has the power to calm the proud waves. The Responsorial Psalm, Psalm 107, reminds us that we proclaim a God of rescue: a God who sees people in distress and listens to their pleas. And then, the story we heard in today's Gospel Reading is quite familiar. While Jesus and his disciples were crossing the sea, Jesus lays down to rest just as a violent storm begins. The disciples panic and wake Jesus who calms the storm and asks the disciples, "Do you not yet have faith?"

Jesus' question is not meant to accuse them, but to teach them and invite them to go more deeply into growing from be afraid to having a deep and strong faith. In the same way, we, who go through many struggles, fears, anxieties, and worries about the world that surrounds us, do we have faith that God will accompany us and bring us safely through these storms? The struggles we face today are quite serious, but we already have so much evidence from the Scriptures, and from our own lives, that God will not leave us alone. Let us always keep our eyes fixed on God.

What storms have you gone through with the help of God?

When you are at your wit's end, which faith-filled person do you turn to for stability and shelter? Can you be that person for someone else?

Bereavement Group Starting

*** Save the Dates ***

Based on the number of people who have signed up for the 6-week Bereavement Group, we will begin Wednesday July 10 from 1 PM until 3 PM and meet for 6 consecutive Wednesdays. If you have not already signed up, we invite you to see Bridget Auer, Alice Cross, or Gary Texter.

Chicken Date: August 10th

Tickets will go on sale this weekend for our annual Chicken Barbecue featuring our "secret recipe" grilled half chicken, baked potato, 3-bean salad, dinner roll and watermelon, iced tea and lemonade. The Zupetz family ~ masters of the grill and keepers of the coating recipe ~ will once again dazzle us by presenting the most delicious chicken in the area. The price has been held at $15.00 per ticket. Don't miss out!

Just a Few More Are Needed Still

Thanks to everyone who has already contributed tickets for this annual raffle. More tickets are still needed and appreciated! There will be an opportunity later this year to buy chances toward winning the huge display that will be assembled by Ted Wall. You may place your donated Lottery Tickets in an envelope marked "Lottery Tickets" and place them in the collection basket.

"It is simply impossible to lead, without the aid of prayer, a virtuous life."
