LIVING THE LITURGY:

Mercy

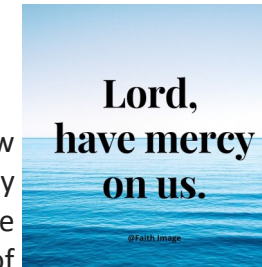

Today's meetings remind us how shocking and radical God's mercy can be. The First Reading from the Book of Genesis recalls the fall of Adam and Eve. Although they were banished from the garden, God continued (and continues) to extend grace and mercy to humanity time and time again. I remember hearing this story as a child and wondered: how stupid could they be! God only asked for one simple thing. Yet in a very short time I found myself in the same position, unable to do the simple things that God asked of me. It is all too easy for us to sin.

Psalm 130 reads, "With the Lord there is mercy, and fullness of redemption." How quickly do we forget this! When I have some falling out with someone, I usually go over again and again in my mind how I had acted perfectly well, and that the other was most clearly in the wrong. It is difficult to recognize the part I played in the situation, and even harder to accept responsibility. But when I become honest with myself, then I can accept responsibility and repent. Repentance means to turn away from sin and turn toward God and right living. While it is quite difficult to accept responsibility and apologize to the injured one, God gives me the strength.

In most cases, people respond favorably to one who apologizes for mistakes made and is sincere in repentance. So, too, is God quick to forgive us in our repentance. When we accept responsibility for sin and repent, then, "with the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption." We are all called to walk humbly with God and with those whom we serve.

How have you experienced God's mercy in your own life?

In times of discouragement, where can you seek renewal and inner strength?

Mass Attendance/Collection

At Mass on June 1 & 2: 124
Weekend Collection: $2,254.00

Win a Basket of Cheer!

The Ladies Guild is sponsoring a raffle for a Basket of Cheer. There are actually two beautiful baskets, so there will be two winners! All contents have been donated. The proceeds from the raffle become part of the Church's fundraising efforts to close the serious financial gap. Tickets will be on sale every weekend after Mass through Fathers' Day (June 16), when the winning tickets will be drawn at the special coffee hour in honor of all Dads.

More Lottery Tickets Needed

Thanks to everyone who has already contributed tickets for this annual raffle. More tickets are still needed and appreciated! There will be an opportunity later this year to buy chances toward winning the huge display that will be assembled by Ted Wall. You may place your donated Lottery Tickets in an envelope marked "Lottery Tickets" and place them in the collection basket.

Fathers Day Coffee Hour

Next Sunday after Mass, please join us in the parish center lower level for a special coffee hour in honor of Fathers Day. AnnMarie Troy and her team are once again planning a delicious buffet table with lots of goodies, coffee and tea, and an opportunity to say "thank you" to all men who are dads, granddads, uncles, big brothers, foster dads—all those special men who mentor and care for us.
