LIVING THE LITURGY

Reverence to the Blessed Sacrament

Once, a parish was holding Eucharistic Adoration. For some time, people were praying silently before the Blessed Sacrament. Then, a group of parishioners who were Latinos came in. They began to pray out loud and to sing. Such a commotion rankled those who were praying silently, so they went to speak with the priest. "It is disgraceful how they are making this noise!" they said. "How can we pray properly before our Lord with all this racket?! Don't they know that Jesus is here?"

The priest went to speak with the newcomers. "But, Father," they said, "Jesus is here! How can we not tell Him how much we love Him? How can we not share with Him the sorrows and burdens we have? How can we not sing to Him to comfort Him in all His sufferings?!"

Truly, Jesus is here in the Blessed Sacrament. It is good to remember that whenever we come into the church. While we are here, we can unburden ourselves before him. We can pour out our struggles and our deepest desires. We can offer him our very selves, recognizing that he gives himself to us in the Eucharist freely and completely. There can be room for silent prayer and noisy prayer. Maybe we could even offer him a love song?

What do you do when you come to adore the Blessed Sacrament.

What do you want to say to Jesus?

ALL ARE WELCOME IN THIS PLACE!

We recently greeted a new family of Wrens who built a nest in the wreath on the Church front door. Eggs were laid, and at least two chicks hatched. Mama and Papa didn't seem to mind the comings and goings of people; they would fly to the railing, watch and wait. Parishioners were careful not to disturb the babies, Now the nest is empty and the Wren Family is off to new adventure.

WE CELEBRATED
all "DADS" ON FATHERS DAY!

This past Sunday — Fathers Day — there was a wonderful brunch after Mass for the dads, granddads, uncles, adoptive dads, nurturing men and more. It was lovingly coordinated by AnnMarie Troy and her team.

The Ladies Guild had prepared a huge display of "goodies for guys" which they raffled off. Congrats to Helen Johnson who won the display. Phil Fayol won a bottle of wine!
